About Flamebox...

Based in Tyrol, Austria, Flamebox is a young and dynamic business consultancy service, bringing a wide range of experience in industrial & organisational psychology, business management, marketing, communications, theatre, speech, presentation, dance and fitness. At Flamebox the aim is to bring the right business solution for you.

Flamebox offers talent and experience and provides creative solutions that ensure whatever challenge your business is facing, every effort will be made to solve it, ensuring your goals are achieved.

Mission

To 'think-out-of-the-box' when solving business-related challenges.

Philosophy

To be real, honest, and creative. The phrase, "What you sow, you reap" is key at Flamebox; thereby ensuring that the work put in will ensure you reap the benefits you're looking for.

Vision

To work with clients who have a clear vision for their business, know their budget, are customer-orientated and who have the determination to take their business to another level, working alongside advice offered by Flamebox.

Services

Flamebox offers a wide range of services (please turn over for a detailed listing) tailored to your individual business needs. The focus is on management with emphasis on human resources, business, product, project, brand, marketing and communications.

I trust you will choose to partner with Flamebox and make it the business consultancy service for you.
